

ROMAN ROAD PRIMARY SCHOOL SEN INFORMATION REPORT

The SEN policy reflects the principles of the 2014 Code of Practice.

Review March 2022

Introduction

The new code of practice 0-25 years (September 2014) has made it mandatory for all schools to publish a Special Educational Needs (SEN) Information Report, which details information about their arrangements for identifying, assessing and making provision for pupils with SEN as well as the arrangements for admission of disabled pupils. The expectation is that Special Educational Needs and Disabilities of all pupils are to be met in a mainstream setting wherever possible.

As part of the Children and Families Act 2014, Local Authorities are required to publish a Local Offer, which sets out support that is available for children and young people with special educational needs (SEN) in the local area. Newham's Local Offer is available on the Newham website:

<https://www.newham.gov.uk/Pages/Services/What-is-the-local-offer.aspx>

The local offer is a guide to the services in Newham that are available for children and young people with special educational needs (SEN) and disabilities aged from birth to 25. It tells parents how to access services in their area and what to expect from these services. Alongside Newham's local offer, we have put together our own school's local offer which can be found on the school website:

www.romanroad.newham.sch.uk

Alongside this, schools are required to publish a SEN Information Report about their arrangements for identifying, assessing and making provision for pupils with SEN.

In response to this, we have put together our SEN Information Report for Roman Road Primary School.

This information is to ensure that parents and other stakeholders have access to useful information when considering mainstream education options or before discussing a referral for EHC needs assessment. (Education and Health care plan)

Roman Road's SEN Information Report details the arrangements we make for pupils with SEN and/or disability. In doing this, it has addressed fully the key points in the checklist of the SEN code of practice 2014 0-25 act. This report makes reference to our local offer and SEN policy. It is to be read in conjunction with related documents such as admission and school prospectus curriculum policies, Equality Disability Act 2010 statement. Our SEN Information report will be renewed annually in accordance to the new act directives.

How pupils with SEN are enabled to engage with children without SEN

At Roman Road School, all pupils have access to all areas of the premises. Pupils integrate and interact in classes and assembly. They also socialise in the playground, dining hall and after school clubs.

Pupils sit in mixed ability groups in foundation subjects. A common strategy that is used across the school is the 'Turn to Your Partner' approach that ensures all pupils are relating with each other frequently during the course of the day. Pupils discuss and answer questions set by the teacher to ensure pupils have a voice before responding to the whole class or group. Pupils often work in groups to discuss their ideas and complete tasks, this guarantees equal participation of all pupils and equal opportunity to 'shine'.

Roman Road Primary School is well placed to adopt these changes and looks forward to working with pupils and parents/carers to ensure fully inclusive access to our education.
